Luxurious Estate in a Cork-Oak Forest: A Seamless Blend of Architecture and Nature

Discover a magnificent residential project where architectural finesse merges seamlessly with nature's grandeur. Situated in the heart of a cork-oak forest, this exquisite estate is designed to complement and enhance the inherent beauty of its surroundings. The presence of century-old local trees adds a remarkable allure to the property, making it a breathtaking natural wonder. Every element of this splendid home is integrated with the surrounding landscape, featuring patios and walkways that foster a life immersed in nature.

The estate features spacious living areas distributed over three floors that descend a 2,209.00 m² plot. The integration of natural light and ventilation in every corner of the house, along with study areas and dressing rooms in the bedrooms, ensures both comfort and functionality.

The exterior design includes an outdoor pool, complemented by a water mirror that provides a sense of freshness and brightness. Additionally, the house offers dedicated wellness spaces, including spa facilities, a gym, and a sauna, as well as an indoor heated pool.
